“Matua Korowi, tatari ki a au, kei te pīrangī au ki te haere.”

“Kia tere mai, Raiha. Kei te haere au ki ngā Puketurua.

He kāinga tawhito tērā nō te whānau. He ūkaipō hoki.”

“Matua Korowi, he aha tēnei wai?”

“Ko te wai kaukau tēnei o Huturangi. Ko Te Rotokautuku. Ko te tipuna tēnei o te iwi. I moea e Paikea. He ūkaipō. Ko Paikea te tipuna o te iwi. Nā tana kauika mōkai ia i kawē mai ki konei. He ūkaipō hoki.”

“Matua Korowi, ko wai tēnei maunga?”

“Ko maunga Kamiti tēnei. He pukepuke te āhua o Kamiti nā te mea he pā tawhito hoki nō te iwi. He kāinga nō ngā tipuna. He ūkaipō.”

“Matua Korowi, ko wai te marae i raro rā?”

“Ko Ohinewaiapū tērā. Ko te take o Ohinewaiapū hei pupuri i te whenua. Mō te katoa tēnā marae. Ko te whānau a Takimoana ngā kaitiaki. Nō rātou hoki te ūkaipō.”

“Matua Korowi, he aha tērā whare nui?”

“He whare karakia. Ko Meri te ingoa o tērā whare. He whare hei maumaharatanga ki ngā hōia i hinga i ngā Pakanga o te Ao. He tuku karakia hei pupuri i te ūkaipō. Whakarongo ki tētahi wāhi o te haka a tō tipuna, a Toterewa. Kei konei te ihi, te wana, te ūkaipō o te whānau.”
